"My Home, My Neighborhood" Campaign

The Wayne County Sheriff's Office and the Wayne County Farm Bureau are introducing a new program to help keep your family safe. All it takes is a little effort on your part to get acquainted or re-acquainted with your neighbors.

It's simple and could save property and or even lives.

Attached to this sheet is a two sided, informational card; one side contains important information and provides spaces for family names as well as numbers. The other side is for "neighbor" information.

We challenge each household to take this home, know who your neighbors are, talk with them about this "crime prevention program" and fill in their names. Once you have filled out the necessary information place this card near your phone or on your refrigerator so that it is accessible to the entire household.

Knowing your neighbors is one of the greatest available resources at hand to keep your neighbors safe. Reporting suspicious acts and suspicious cars are the first steps to preventing crimes.

The Wayne County Sheriff's Office encourages every household to utilize this card to help make our neighborhood a safer place.
